Your journal might look like this:

Week One

Reading
I read 3 chapters of the BFG and I think the giants are disgusting. It must have been terrifying for poor Sophie trapped in the BFG's pocket.

Mathematics
I took 5 items out of the pantry and decided to find the total weight. It came to 3.5kg which was a bit more than I thought it would be.

Happy Home
I helped dad rake up the leaves in the garden and then we threw them at each other. It was fun and then we had to start raking all over again.

News
I was glad to hear of the little girl whose cat got stuck in a tree. The fireman got it down and she was really happy.
