

INCURSION DETAILS:	 <h2>Being Brave</h2>  Brainstorm Productions is providing an entertaining, educational theatre experience for our whole school. 'Being Brave' gives children strategies to deal with their emotions through good communication, persistence and positive self-talk - making them more resilient. This inspiring show uses song, dance and drama to give children strategies to bounce back after dealing with bullying, loss and change. Fly is a young boy whose parents have separated. He misses his dad desperately and tries to be brave by keeping his emotions 'bottled up'. Isha has been forced to come to a new country and Tim has to stand up and seek help when he is being bullied. Mikalia has to give up the rigours of ballet dancing and find a new dream, and Celia comes to terms with loss in her family.  The production has been planned to coincide with R U OK DAY, an annual day in September dedicated to remind people to ask family, friends and colleagues the question, "R U OK?" in a meaningful way. Something we're never too young to learn is that asking "are you ok?" can make a difference. By giving students the confidence to start conversations regularly and with real care, they can be the generation that transforms the way we look out for those needing help.
