

PG Rated Program – Honey I Shrunk The Kids

9/05/2018

Dear Parents,

As part of our Term Two Inquiry unit on Design and Technology we will be watching “Honey, I Shrunk the Kids”. This movie is about an inventor who shrinks his and the neighbors kids to a quarter of an inch tall. The children then embark on a journey back to their house through a yard where they fend off insects and other obstacles.

As it is rated PG parental permission is required for your child to participate.

Thank you
